

Von Roll and Renault strengthen their partnership in e-mobility projects

Breitenbach, August 23, 2018 – Von Roll Holding AG announced today that a new five-year supply contract has been signed between Renault and Von Roll France SA. Von Roll already supplies products for the Renault ZOE, the company's electric car model, which is a pioneering breakthrough in the area of e-mobility.

The total contract volume is budgeted in the double-digit million range. Renault, driven by its very ambitious goals, is investing more than EUR 1 billion in e-mobility.

Dominique Larrenduche, Head of Global Sales Resins Product Line, says: "We are extremely proud to have been chosen as a long-term strategic partner by Renault. This success is based on a long-term technical development partnership between this highly innovative automotive company and the recognized leader in electrical insulation systems."

Von Roll is also expanding other important and active partnerships with leading electric car manufacturers worldwide and driving the development of new solutions for electric vehicles.
